Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 24, 2020, Analog Devices, Inc. (the “Company”) voluntarily withdrew its pre-merger notification under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”) relating to the Company’s proposed acquisition of Maxim Integrated Products, Inc. (“Maxim”), in order to provide the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”) with additional time to review the proposed acquisition.

In accordance with the regulations under the HSR Act, the Company plans to resubmit its HSR Act filing on August 26, 2020, commencing a new 30-day waiting period under the HSR Act. Withdrawing and refiling pre-merger notifications is a standard procedure in order to provide additional time for antitrust review of certain transactions. The Company and Maxim continue to work cooperatively with the FTC staff in their review of the proposed transaction, and continue to expect to complete the transaction in the summer of 2021, subject to the satisfaction or permitted waiver of the conditions to closing.

Forward Looking Statements

This communication relates to a proposed business combination transaction between Analog Devices, Inc. (“ADI”) and Maxim. This communication contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements address a variety of subjects, including, for example, projections as to the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, the anticipated impact of the proposed transaction on the combined organization’s business and future financial and operating results, the expected amount and timing of synergies from the proposed transaction, and the anticipated closing date for the proposed transaction. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about ADI’s and Maxim’s beliefs, plans and expectations, are forward-looking statements. including the risk that the conditions to the transaction are not satisfied on a timely basis or at all or the failure of the transaction to close for any other reason or to close on the anticipated terms, including the anticipated tax treatment; the risk that any regulatory approval, consent or authorization that may be required for the proposed transaction is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated; unanticipated difficulties or expenditures relating to the transaction, the response of business partners and retention as a result of the announcement and pendency of the transaction; uncertainty as to the long-term value of ADI's common stock; and the diversion of management time on transaction-related matters. These risks, as well as other risks related to the proposed transaction, are included in the registration statement on Form S-4 that ADI filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") in connection with the proposed transaction and preliminary joint proxy statement/prospectus included therein.
